Smt. Narayani Devi Verma Women's Teacher Training College

Dr. Anima Purohit

The college is dream of Mrs. Sushila Devi Mathur. Her wish was that every girl who take her school education from mahila ashram should also have a noble professional degree, so that she can be self- dependent. Her dream of B.Ed. College Bhilwara come into existence in 1984.

The college is managed by the Mahila Ashram institute a well known institute for girls education in Rajasthan. This is well known teacher education institute in Rajasthan.

At the commencement of the session in Narayani Devi Varma Teachers Training College, the curriculum is duly planned daily for learning outcomes and for program outcomes, for this the institution has its own website to give information about them. In the prospectus of the institution, would have been detailed. As soon as the girl students are admitted, the induction program of the girl students is done, its Very Well planned. The Student Induction Program and Teacher Orientation Program starts with Saraswati Vandana, after that Principal's address to the student's these programs are conducted in a duly manner on the basis of dates. In this induction program the students who have come from different places introduce themselves and are familiar with other girl students. After this the orientation start under the entire planning. The program is done by the teacher because this is the course of B. Ed, B.A. B.Ed. And it is a different type of course, the student is also familiar with that course during the teacher orientation programme and they feel happy and more confident.
